

TVN CNBC together with our company are looking for the real estate investment opportunities in the economic magazine "An hour for money".

On 3 April 2012 Robert Stanilewicz with the ILS Poland Group representative discovers during the live TV program that the Holiday Mecca from 40 years ago is going (for 40 years have been going) to be not only fashionable again but also offers the opportunities for buying cheap houses with the plot in a several kilometers way from the Bulgarian sea. Even adding the general renovation costs, the investment should be very profitable.

At the present day, for Europeans the most price attractive and popular among the property buyers are Bulgaria (the cheapest houses and apartments in European Union), Egypt (the cheapest properties in whole year summer country), Turkey (occasional properties on the Alanya coast) and Portugal with Madeira Island (occasional properties on the eternal spring island).
